Oregon Pinot Noir: One of a Kind

Donated by: REX HILL & William Hatcher Wines

REX HILL has been making elegant Pinot Noirs for over 30 years in Oregon's Willamette Valley. This lot offers a stair-step of sizes, one for every occasion! To achieve wines of greater complexity, REX HILL's Willamette Valley Pinot Noir uses sustainably grown grapes from every sub AVA in the Willamette Valley. The 2009 REX HILL Willamette Valley Pinot Noir (in magnum & half bottle) was named one of the Wine Spectator's Top 100 wines of 2011 and a stellar 93 point score. The grapes and ensuing wines from REX HILL's crown-jewel Jacob Hart Vineyard offer a wealth of complexity derived from vines farmed to Biodynamic standards on every soil type found in the Willamette Valley. The 2008 REX HILL Jacob Hart Pinot Noir (in Jeroboam & standard bottle) received 93 points + Editor's Choice from Wine Enthusiast, 91 points from Wine Spectator and 90 points from the International Wine Cellar.
