COPPERLEAF COUNTRY CLUB CONTRACTS WITH EAS TO PROVIDE EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAMMING FOR STAFF

Naples, FL – Employee Assistance Services (EAS) of Southwest Florida is pleased to announce that Copperleaf Golf and Country Club has recently contracted with EAS to provide a comprehensive employee assistance program for their employees. Copperleaf Golf and Country Club employs nearly 100 people in the areas of administration, golf operations, golf maintenance, dining room and kitchen staff.

The EAS employee assistance program helps employees and their immediate family members resolve personal, family and work related problems that may adversely impact their work performance, conduct, health and wellbeing. By contracting with EAS, Copperleaf Golf Club employees can address problems in the quickest, least restrictive and most convenient manner while minimizing costs and protecting confidentiality. In addition, Copperleaf Golf Club management will have access to a variety of educational and consulting services such as Drug Free Workplace programming, supervisory trainings, management of mandatory employee referrals for performance issues, critical incident debriefing services and employee prevention training programs.

Kelly Ganz, Manager of Club Administration at Copperleaf Golf Club states, “We are pleased to add this exciting new employee benefit. We felt confident in Employee Assistance Service’s ability to partner with us in caring for the personal and professional counseling needs that our employees face throughout their life.”

Copperleaf is located in Bonita Springs in the Brooks Community. The community is comprised of 570 single-family villas within 10 executive neighborhoods of distinction. One and two-story homes feature the latest architectural designs created by Pulte Home Corp. Copperleaf offers an 18-hole championship golf course created by architect Gordon G. Lewis, a 17,000 square-foot clubhouse featuring full service dining and catering services, a golf shop, lighted tennis courts, bocce courts and a heated swimming pool and Jacuzzi.

Employee Assistance Services of Southwest Florida (EAS) is an affiliate of the David Lawrence Center, a not-for-profit, community mental health center that provides affordable mental health and substance abuse services in Southwest Florida. EAS provides local businesses with confidential employee counseling and early identification of personal issues that may be affecting the employee's job performance. In addition to employee counseling assistance, EAS offers critical incident stress debriefing services and training to management and staff on a variety of mental health and substance abuse prevention topics. More information about EAS can be found online at easofswflorida.com.
